OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Fourth Regular Session.

Senate.

MONDAY, Sept. 24th, 1866.

The Senate opened with prayer by Right Rev. Bishop Scott.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. CRAWFORD. I would like to inquire of the Committee on Elections if it is ready to report.

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. As chairman of the Committee on Elections, I will answer that we are not ready to report. What we have done in the Grant county contested case is about this: We had referred to us the petition of Mr. Dribblesby, the contestant; the sitting Senator filed his answer, and since that time the committee has not had a meeting and nothing has been done. The contestant, as we understand, has been awaiting the action of the House on the contested case before that body! I will say further, that the committee will have a meeting this evening, for the consideration of this case.

Mr. JOHNSON. I wish to make a further statement about this matter, that it may not go out of the country wearing the appearance of negligence on the part of the committee. Shortly after the first meeting of the committee I saw Mr. Dribblesby, the contestant, who informed me that he was not ready to go on with the consideration of the case; that he was waiting for the evidence then being used in the House in the case of the contest there. The committee has therefore done nothing in the premises.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

Mr. CRANSTON gave notice that on some subsequent day he would introduce a bill to locate and provide for an Agricultural College.

SECOND READING OF BILLS.

S. B. No. 3—Relating to common schools.

Mr. CARTWRIGHT moved to suspend the rules and read by title, which prevailed, and the bill was read by title.

On motion of Mr. HINDSDALE, the bill was referred to the Committee on Education.

S. B. No. 4, regulating enclosures, was read a second time and ordered engrossed for third reading to-morrow.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received from the House announcing its concurrence in the H. J. R. No. 10, to provide a joint committee to investigate the accounts of Treasurer Hoon and Secretary Heath. The PRESIDENT appointed on the part of the Senate, Messrs. Pyle, Ford and Watson.

On motion of Mr. CRANSTON the Senate adjourned.

AFTERNOON—2 O'CLOCK.

Mr. DOLPH, by leave, introduced a bill—S. B. No. 5, to regulate the foreclosure of chattel mortgages. Read first time.

Mr. JOHNSON. While there is nothing else engaging the attention of the Senate, I would like to suggest that as a bill has been referred to the Judiciary Committee, to amend the Code, it might be well enough for Senators to consider the propriety of referring all contemplated amendments of the Code to that committee, so that all may be considered together. If all contemplated amendments were referred to that committee instead of introducing them here and having them printed, it might save considerable expense.

Mr. HUSTON. In connection with the remarks of the Senator from Clackamas, I wish to say that upon examination I find that the bill I introduced the other day is necessarily unconstitutional. I advise Senators to be on their guard in that matter.

Mr. PRESIDENT. It is a matter resting with Senators, whether they will introduce bills which are unconstitutional.

On motion of Mr. POWELL the Senate adjourned.

House.

House met as usual. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Leslie, of the Methodist Church.

The SPEAKER stated that, as much confusion had arisen at times during the session by members calling each other to order, he should hereafter rule it out of order for any member to call another to order while such member was stating a point of order.

A CELESTIAL REMONSTRANCE.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT. I have a remonstrance in my hand from the Chinese of Josephine county—Well Hung, Chee Bang, and five hundred others—remonstrating against the passage of the bill recently introduced providing for the taxation of Chinese, Kanakas, Negroes and Indians. I will send it up to the Clerk's desk and ask that it be read.

The Clerk said it would be necessary to send for some one of Mr. Hendershott's constituents to read it. [Laughter.]

Mr. WHITEAKER. Do I understand the Clerk to refuse to read a remonstrance to this House?

The SPEAKER. I will call the attention of the gentleman who introduced the remonstrance to the rule requiring the member himself to read his own paper.

Mr. DAY. I move that the remonstrance be referred to a select committee of one, to consist of the gentleman from Union, [Mr. Hendershott.]

Mr. HINDMAN. I believe that the interests of every American citizen should be duly protected, and I regret to see this matter treated so lightly. I move that a Chinaman be sent for to read this remonstrance from our fellow-citizens of Chinese descent. [Laughter.]

Mr. NICKLIN. I call for the reading of this remonstrance.

Mr. SPEAKER. The gentleman from Union will read.

Mr. HENDERSHOTT. I have been running with the niggers lately, and have not associated with my Chinese friends for so long that I have lost my familiarity with their lingo. Formerly I was a particular friend of the Chinese, and I suppose that is the reason they have forwarded their remonstrance to me. I move to refer it to the Committee on Indian Affairs. Carried.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

Mr. GINGLES gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to prohibit the inter marriage and amalgamation of the races. One hundred copies ordered printed.

Mr. McCOY gave notice of a bill to refund to the counties of the Fifth Judicial District certain moneys paid to the Judge thereof as an increase of salary.

Mr. LAMSON gave notice of a bill to amend Sections 288 and 1099 of the "Code of Civil Procedure."

The SPEAKER suggested to members desiring amendments to the Code to present them to the Committee on Judiciary, as they could thereby save much time and trouble.

Mr. OLNEY, Chairman of that Committee, said the Committee would be glad to receive such suggestions.

Mr. AVERY gave notice of a bill creating a bankrupt law.

FINANCES UNDER GOVERNOR WHITEAKER'S ADMINISTRATION.

A S. J. R. to raise a committee of three on the part of the Senate, and a like number on the part of the House, to examine the reports of the Secretaries of State and of the Treasurer during the administration of Gov. Whiteaker, was concurred in, and Messrs. Upton, Whiteaker and Herman, were appointed on the part of the House. The resolution states that a discrepancy of some five thousand dollars exists between the reports.

INDIAN TROUBLES.

A message from the Senate was read announcing that that body had amended the House resolution in relation to protection against hostile Indians by substituting a memorial to General Steele, setting forth the facts of the depredations committed by the Indians in Eastern Oregon, and asking the necessary protection at as early a day as possible.

Mr. HUMASON. I am in favor of that memorial, but I think it should be addressed to the commander of the Department of the Pacific—Gen. Steele only has command of the troops in the District of Oregon, and I think he has no authority to dispose of troops in any department out of this military district. The truth of the matter is, that nearly all of the troops have been ordered out of this district and have been placed upon what is commonly known as the Chico route. There are, I believe, seven companies upon that route and in and about Owyhee, while there is only one or two on the route from the Dalles to Boise City. The natural result of this policy is that the Indians are drawn over upon our border and commit their depredations upon our citizens. I am in favor of this memorial but I wish to have it addressed to Gen. Halleck, who alone has power to grant the protection needed. Another point, I do not think this memorial is proper, because it is not dignified for a Legislature to memorialize any officer. For these reasons I am in favor of referring it to a committee with instructions to report as soon as possible. I move that it be referred to a special committee of three.

Mr. UPTON. I agree with the gentleman from Wasco and am in favor of its reference to a committee. I think there are some improvements in its language needed, also. It speaks of innumerable bands of hostile Indians which I think might be modified; and also of a band of Government mules, after having been captured, making an attack, etc. It strikes me that simply calling the attention of the commanding officer of the Division of the Pacific to these facts would be more appropriate.

Mr. HUMASON withdrew his motion, and moved to refer it to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. OLNEY. Being a member of that committee, and not having views in accordance with those expressed in the memorial, I request that it be not so referred. It seems to me that it would be well to create a separate committee say on rhetoric—to consider such papers as this. I am opposed to this memorial. We have a chief executive officer whose duty it is to speak for us. I think it would be the proper course for our Governor to call upon the military commander here for the protection needed. I see no other proper course to be pursued. I do not think it proper for this Assembly to address any military commander except through the Executive of the State. Our Executive should make this request. If, when he comes to do it, he chooses to embody a good deal of rhetoric in his communication, it will be all right. Besides, I have not had time to ascertain whether all these statements are true, and I do not wish to vote till I can examine the matter to some extent.

On motion of Mr. HENDERSHOTT, Mr. Humason's motion was amended by substituting for Judiciary the word Indian Affairs, and the memorial was so referred.

AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION RELATIVE TO JUDICIARY.

A message from the Senate announcing that that body had ratified the proposed amendment to the State constitution, authorizing the Legislative Assembly to provide for the election of supreme and circuit judges in separate classes, was read.

Mr. HERMAN moved its reference to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. OLNEY thought it better to refer it to a committee of the whole House, as it addresses itself to the judgment of all, whether of the legal profession or not. In a committee of the whole discussion could be more general and free.

Mr. HERMAN withdrew his motion and moved to concur in the recommendation of the Senate.

Mr. OLNEY stated his views in relation to the proposed change. The present system of having the circuit judges perform the duties of supreme judges also was adopted with our State constitution at a time when our State was thinly populated and its natural resources undeveloped. We then had no mines and but little commerce. The wealth of the country consisted in real estate, the products of which were not great and brought to us but little income. The convention which framed the constitution, adopted the most rigid economy. The people did not feel themselves able to assume the burdens of a State government, and therefore this temporary expedient was adopted. The present system is defective for reasons which are palpable to all, whether lawyers or not. For instance, the circuit judge passes judgment upon a case. It is appealed to the supreme court. Of that court the judge who gave the decision from which appeal is taken, is a member. Although he is not permitted to decide upon the case a second time, yet there is very naturally a disposition to favor his decision. There are generally appeals taken from all the circuits, and the different judges have, of course, an interest in having their decisions sustained, hence each judge is inclined to favor his associates. I do not say this in a fault finding spirit—I think we have a very creditable body of judges—but this is a thing which is inevitable in human nature. The speaker argued somewhat at length in favor of the change.

Mr. LOCEY had not fully made up his mind on the subject, but was disposed to adhere to the caution manifested by the Constitution in prohibiting this change till the population of the State should reach 200,000. He desired further time to consider the subject.

Mr. CHENOWITH said this was a question which it was understood would come before this body, and his constituents well understood his sentiments in regard to it. He argued that the change was generally needed. If it should be objected to on the ground of expense, he would ask if there are not some expenses now incurred, which may be dispensed with more easily than we can do without this proposed change in our Judicial system? He believed in State rights, and in having each department of Government separate and independent of the others. The circuits as they now stand are liable to objection on account of their size. This is especially true of the First and Fifth districts in which the Judges find their expenses in traveling over them greater than their salaries. Besides such work which is of itself too great a tax upon the compensation they receive, these judges are required to attend the annual sessions of the Supreme Court. He contended that the latter duty should be imposed upon judges elected for that especial purpose. Another reason why this resolution should be passed is that it is simply a proposition to submit the matter to the people for their decision. Action here is not final. He could see no objection to the proposition.

Mr. ROLAND was opposed to it on the grounds of expense. He had very little complaint of the present judicial system, but had heard loud clamors against taxation. He was of the opinion that this measure was demanded by the lawyers more than by the people. He would not vote for it.

Mr. HELM thought the change greatly needed. He agreed with the gentleman from Clatsop as to the impolicy of having judges from the circuit courts sit in judgment upon appellate cases. He thought there might be a disposition on the part of members of the supreme courts to act upon the principle of "you tickle me, Billy, and I'll tickle you," policy. Indeed, he had heard the supreme court styled a sort of "Mutual Admiration Society." He thought the objection on the grounds of expense came with a poor grace from any one who had supported the late profligate administration. He hoped the resolution would pass.

Mr. HUMASON was in favor of the proposition. The change would add an annual expense of from six to ten thousand dollars—less than half a mill in tax upon the $25,000,000 of the property of the State. The question now before the Legislature was not on the change itself, but on submitting it to the people, and there was no reason in keeping it from them.

At 11:40 A. M., adjourned.

AFTERNOON.

Mr. GARRETT considered it his duty to oppose the proposed amendment. He thought there were other things needed worse than this change in the judiciary. We have no public buildings yet; public improvements are wanted; our courthouses are humble and uncomfortable, and many of the counties are still wanting good jails and courthouses.

Mr. COX was opposed to the proposition itself, but was willing to submit it to the people.

Mr. NICKLIN was in favor of concurring.

Mr. STARKWEATHER opposed at some length, arguing that it was not absolutely necessary to make the change, and as it would be an additional expense he preferred to wait. Little items make up the bulk of a State's expenses. He was in favor of lopping off all these little items he could.

Messrs. HUMASON, LOCEY, UPTON, WORTH and others discussed the proposition at great length.

Mr. NICKLIN moved to refer to the committee of the whole, which motion carried.

Messages from the Senate announcing the concurrence of that body in the other proposed amendments to the Constitution (to authorize the Assembly to increase the salaries of officers and to increase the per diem of members of the Legislature to $4 a day), was read and referred to the committee of the whole.

POLK COUNTY CONTEST.

The resolution offered by Mr. GARLICK on last Saturday was taken from the table. It authorizes the issuing of subpoenas for witnesses in the Polk county contest to be made returnable on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mr. HUMASON had moved to amend by adding, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Messrs. HELM and HUMASON thought there should be no haste in the matter.

Mr. WORTH denounced this policy of permitting witnesses to be sent for at the expense of the State. He wanted this matter disposed of.

Mr. HUMASON offered a resolution declaring Mr. Hall entitled to his seat, and that the House give no further attention to the claims of Mr. Collins.

Mr. OLNEY and others opposed the motion, and it was withdrawn.

Mr. WHITE moved to fix the case as the special order for ten o'clock on next Thursday. If this was not giving sufficient time he would be willing to give longer time.

Mr. HALL (one of the sitting members) said it would take several days to get all the witnesses before the House.

Pending the consideration of the question, on motion of Mr. Worth, at 5 o'clock P. M. adjourned.

Nasby Attends the Philadelphia Convention.

CONFEDERATE X ROADS,
(Which is in the Stait of Kentucky),
August 14, 1866.

Peace is into me! I hev spent many happy periods in the course uv an eventful life, but I never knowd what perfeck satisfackshun wuz till now. The first week I wuz married to my Looizer Jane it wuz hevenly, for independent of the other blisses incident to a married state I believe she wuz the individual possessor uv a farm, or rather, her father wuz, which on the old man's decease would be hern, and the prospeck uv a lifetime with a amiable well-built woman, with a farm big enough to support me, with prudence on her part, wuz bliss itself, and I enjoyed it with a degree uv muchness rarely ekaled, until I found out that it wuz kivered more deeply with mortgages than it wuz ever likely to be with crops, and my dream of happiness busted. Sweet ez wuz this week, it wuz misery condensed when compared to the season I hev just passed through.

I wuz a delegate to Philadelphia! I wuzn't elected nor nothing, and hedn't any credentials, but the door of the Wigwam I passed, nevertheless. The doorkeeper wuz an old Dimokrat, and my breth helped me, my nose, which already blossoms like the lobster, wuz of yoose, but I spect my hevin a gray coat on, with a stand up collar, with a brass star onto it, wuz wat finished the biznis. The Southern delegates fought shy of me, but the Northern ones, bless their souls, the minit they saw the star on the collar uv my gray coat, couldn't do enuff for me. They addressed me as Kernel and Gineral, and sed "this wuz trooly an unmerited honor," and paid for my drinks, and I succeeded in borrowin a hundred and twenty dollars from them the first day. I mite hev doubled it, but the fellows wuz took in so easy that no financeerin wuz required, and it really wuz no amoozement.

The Convenshun itself wuz the most affecientest gatherin I ever witnisst. I hed a seat beside Randall, who wuz a managin the concern, and I cood see it all. The crowd rushed into the bildin and filled it, when Randall desired attention. He bein the Postmaster General, every one of em dropped into his seat ez though he hed been shot, and there wuz the most perfeck quiet I ever saw. Doolittle, who wuz the Cheerman, winked at Randall and nodded his head, when Randall announced that THE DELEGATES FROM SOUTH KARLINY AND DELEGATES FROM MASSACHOOSITS WOOD ENTER ARM IN ARM! With slow and measured step they cum in, and at a signal from Randall the cheerin commenced, and sich cheerin! Then Doolittle pulled out his white handkercher and applied it to his eyes.

To me, this wuz the proudest moment uv my life, not that there wuz anything partikilerly inspiritin in the scene afore me, for there wuzzent. Orr, from South Caroliny, looked partikilerly ashamed of hisself, as tho he wuz going thro a highly necessary, but extremely disgustin ceremony, and wuz determined to keep up a stiff under lip over it, and Couch looked up to Orr ez though he wuz afeerd uv him and ez though he felt flattered by Orr's condesension in walkin at all with sich a umble individjool. But to me the scene wuz significant. I looked into the fucher and what did I see ez them two men, one sneekin and tuther ashamed of hisself, walked up that aisle? What did I see? I saw Democrisy restored to its normal condishun—I saw the reunion uv the two wings—in fact I saw the entire Dimokratic bird united. The North, one wing and the weakest; Kentucky the beak, sharp, hungry and rapacious; Southwest the strong active wing; Virginny, the legs and claws; Ohio the heart, Pennsylvania the stomach, South Caroliny the tail feathers and Noo Jersey the balance of the bird. I saw these parts, for five years dissevered, come together, holdin nigger in one claw and Postoffice in the other, sayin, "Take em both together—they go in lots." I saw the old Union—the bold, shivelrous Southerner a guidin, controllin and directin the machine, and assumin to hisself the places of honor, and the Dimokrat uv the North follerin like a puppy dog at his heels, takin sich fat things or he cood snap up—the Southerner ashamed uv his associations but forced to yoose em—the Northerner uncomfortable in his presence but tied to him by self-interest. I saw a comin back the good old times when thirty-four States met in Convenshun and let eleven rule em, and ez I contemplated the scene I too wept, but it wuz in dead earnest.

"Wat are you blubberin for?" asked a enthoosiastic delegate in front uv me who wuz a swabbin his eyes with a hankercher.

"I'm a Postmaster," sez I, "and must do my dooty in this crisis. What are you sheddin pearls for," retorted I. "Are you a Postmaster?"

"No," sez he, "but I hope to be," and he swabbed away with renood vigger.

"Wat's the matter with the eyes uv all the delegates," sez I.

"They've all got Post Offices in 'em," sez he, and he worked away faster than ever.

While gettin a fresh hankercher (which I borrowed from the hind coat pocket uv a delegate near me, and wich, by the way, in my delirious joy, I forgot to say nothin to him about it), I looked over the Convenshun, and agin the teers welled up from my heart. My sole wuz full and overflowin, and I slopped over at the eyes. There before me sat that here Dick Taylor and Cuth Bullitt, and there wuz the Nelsons and Yeadons and the representatives uv the first families of the South, and in Philadelphia, at the Convenshun, with all the leading Democrats uv the North, ceptin Vallandigham and Wood, and they wuz skulkin around within call, with their watchful eyes on the perceedins. Here is a prospeck! Here is fatuis! The President into our confidence! The Postmaster a runnin the Convenshun! The bands playin Dixie and the Star Spangled Banner alternitely, so that nobody cood complain uv partiality, or tell reely wich side the Convenshun wuz on, or wich side it had been on in the past. Ah! my too susceptible sole filled up agin, the teers started, but that wuzn't enuff, and I fell faintin onto the floor. Twenty or thirty Northern delegates seed me fallin, and ketchin site of the gray coat with a star onto it, rushed to ketch me, and they bore me out uv the wigwam. Sed one: "Wat a techin seen!"—overpowered by his feelins. "Yes," said another, "he deserves appintment!"

I didn't go back to the Convenshun, coz I knew it want no yoose, and besides, after all the teers that had been shed, the members wringing their handkerchers onto the floor, it was sloppy under foot. Conciliation and tenderness gushed out ov em. I knowd it would be all right—it couldn't be otherwise. There wuz bonds which held the members together and prevented the possibility uv trouble. Johnson hevin a ambition to head a party, must hev a party to hed. The Northern delegashun, which hed formerly actid with the Ablishinists, couldn't do nothin without the Democracy North, and both uv em combining could not do nothin without the Democracy South. The President cood depend on the Democracy North, coz he must hev their votes; the President cood depend on the Democracy South, coz they want him to make a fight agin a Ablishin Congris, wich is a unconstitooshenally keepin uv em out and preventin em from wollopin their niggers: the Democracy South cood depend on the President coz he must hev their representatives in their seats to beat the Ablishinists in Congris—all cood depend on the other, coz each faction, or rather each stripe hed its little private ax to grind, which it coodn't do without others to turn the grindstone.

The Southern delegates, some on em, wuznt so well pleased. "What in thunder" sed one uv em, "did they mean by pilin on the agony over the Yanks we killed?—by pledgin us to give up the ijee uv seceshuen, and by plegin on us to pay the nashnel Yankee debt?"

"Sh!" sed I, "easy over the rough places. My friend, they didn't mean it, or if they did, we didn't. Is a oath so hard to break? Wood it trouble that emident patriot, Breckinridge, after all to support the Constitooshun, to sware to it wunst more? and wood it trouble him to break it any more than it did in '61? Nay, verily. Dismiss them gloomy thots. Vallandigham was kicked out, but a thousand mules, and all uv em old and experienced, cooden't kick him out uv service. Doolittle talked Northern talk coz its a habit he got into doorin the war, but he'll git over it. Raymond will be on our side this year, certain, for last year he wuz agin us, and by the time he is ready to turn agin he'll be worn to so small a pint that he won't be worth hevin, and the Democricy uv the North wuz allux ourn, and if they wuzent, the offices Johnson held in reserve will draw em like lode stun."

My deer sir, I wunst knowd a Irishman, who wuz sence killed in a Fenian raid, employed as a artist in well diggin. It wuz his lot to go to the bottom uv the excavation and load the buckets with earth. The dinner horn sounded, and he, with the alacrity characteristic uv the race, sprang into the bucket and told em to hist away, and they amoozed themselves a droppin earth onto him. "Shtop!" said he, but they didn't. "Shtop!" said he, "or be gorra, I'll cut the rope." My deer sir, Randall, and Doolittle, and Seward, and Johnson, are a histen us out uv the pit we fell into in 1870. Their little talk about debts and slavery and sich is the earth they are droppin onto us for fun, but she! we like ijeots cut the rope! Nary! Let em histe, and when we are out and on solid ground, we kon, ef we desire, turn and chuck em into the hole.

All went off satisfied—the northern men, for they carried home with em their commishuns—I, feelin that my Post office wuz sekoor; for, if, with the show we've got, we can't re-elect Johnson, the glory uv the Dimocracy hex departed indeed.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.,
(which is Postmaster.)

A NEW ROUTE TO THE PACIFIC.—We learn from a gentleman who has been spending the spring and summer North, that plans are now on foot for the prosecution of a new railroad route to the Pacific, which, as it takes more practical and available ground, is shorter and every way more eligible, will be more likely to go through than any other, especially since Gen. John C. Fremont, at the head of a large number of capitalists, is at the head also of the enterprise. The plan is to connect the line of railroads running through the Southern part of Texas, thence to Monterey, with the Guaymas, now in Mexico, but which is soon expected to be in the United States.

The cultivable and inhabitable region is to be traversed, and not the arid plains, and a mining country is to be pierced through by it during its whole extension through what is now Mexico. This is part and parcel of the scheme of a "liberal loan," which is to be repaid with concession of territory. This or a permitted protectorate over American interests in Mexico, is to make this railroad enterprise safe at first and very profitable afterward. With Fremont at the head of it, it will be sure to have congressional sanction and assistance.—N. O. Picayune.

The Savannah Republican says the work of removing the obstructions from the harbor of that city steadily progresses. The gunboat Firefly, which was burnt and sunk upon the evacuation of Savannah by the Confederates, was recently raised from 19 feet of water. The sunken ironclad Milledgeville will next engage the contractors.

A Hamburg correspondent mentions the suggestive fact that, more than seven-eighths of the slain in the Prussian armies were married men. Young men, as far as possible, escaped from the country; but those who had families were compelled to remain, and as the conscription laws are sweeping, and no substitutes allowed, these were forced into the army.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPT 26 1866

Johnson Abandoned to the Democracy

The new party has died an early death. The doctors who took a diagnosis of the case at Philadelphia reported favorably, but the poor bantling had a forced and unnatural growth, and could not live. The tears of joy which were shed on the occasion of its birth were so many charitable and sympathetic drops utterly wasted. That arm in arm performance by South Carolina and Massachusetts, might as well never have occurred. It was an affecting scene for the nonce but its effect has been entirely lost. Henry J Raymond and Thurlow Weed were the leading spirits in originating the new party. They managed its first and only great Convention. Weed was master of ceremonies, and Raymond reported the resolutions and wrote and read the address. Altogether, the Convention was a big thing. The advent of the new party was hailed as the dawn of a political millennium. The President shed tears over it. Seward looked on with benignant approbation, and prophesied that party strife would be hushed and everything settled in "ninety days." Cowan promised Pennsylvania to Johnson and himself another term in the United States Senate. Bigler and Purdy gave their word that Johnson should have California. Thurlow Weed promised him New York, and Orr, South Carolina. Democrats and "conservative Republicans" were going to work for a common object. The Union should be restored at once—that it should. The "Radicals" were to be taught that their dogmas would never be submitted to. Men were going to rise above party, and save their country. Now what is the result of all these great promises? In New York, the only State in which there was a serious attempt to organize the new party, the coalition has already dissolved. Weed and Raymond, representing the "conservative Republicans" of whom so much has been said, repudiate the New York nominations. The Times, their organ, declares that Hoffman, the new party or Democratic candidate for Governor, neither can nor ought to be elected. This rupture settles the business for Johnson. The contest promised to be very close in the great State of New York. Now, there is no danger of the defeat of the Union candidates. From the commencement there has been no hope for Johnson unless he could detach from the Union party a large number of its votes. This, it is now certain, he cannot do. When the principal manager of the Philadelphia Johnson Convention, and the author of the address it put forth, withdraw from the new party, what is left of it? Democracy. To the Five Points Democracy, headed by John Morrissey, Johnson has been abandoned. Even the "little villain of the Times" will not go in such company. What has come of the Philadelphia Convention? Where is the new party? Alas! the tree which Johnson watered so copiously with tears is already withered away.

THE COMING VICTORY.—We beg to call particular attention to the political news in the telegraphic dispatches to-day. The New York Herald, as celebrated for its sagacity in divining the result of coming elections, as it is for shameless inconsistency and venality, says the fall elections are going overwhelmingly for the constitutional amendment and the Union party. The Times says the same thing. The Herald even advises Johnson to dismiss his Cabinet and appoint one which more nearly represents a majority of the people—that is to say, one which is more radical! This monitor, anticipating Johnson's defeat, is endeavoring to break the force of his fall, by telling him that he cannot, with any appearance of consistency, oppose the amendment, and intimating that as the measure is his own, its adoption will be his triumph! Somebody has evidently blundered. Who is it? We commend all these signs to the attention of weak kneed Union men who may be doubting whether their party is going to win. Who will doubt longer that the Union party is destined shortly to achieve the most signal victory it ever won?

Intelligence from Salem is to the effect that some of the members elected as Unionists from this county to the Legislature, have declined to vote for the Union caucus nominee for United States Senator. Whether they will persist in their course remains to be seen. Many persons hesitate to believe that they will still maintain their present position of antagonism to the expressed will of the majority and thus bring about the election of J. W. Nesmith or some other Copperhead. If they intend only to hold on as long as it is safe, in order if possible, to procure the election of some other man besides the nominee, they may be in some degree excusable, but such a hope is certainly unreasonable. No Union man, unless it be the nominee, can possibly be elected. There can be no doubt of this. The Union party of this county, friends of Mr. Mitchell as well as of Gov. Gibbs, are now unanimously in favor of the latter, and expect their members to stand by the nomination. The Union party of the State demand it. It is the only way the party can be saved.

THE DEMAGOGUE.—Johnson was received at Philadelphia by Colonel Page, a Copperhead officer on the peace establishment. The reply of the Tennessee demagogue was not telegraphed here, and we now find it for the first time in the Eastern papers. A single paragraph will serve to show the quality of the speech. Observe how this man, who is said by his flatterers to be fit to rule mankind, stoops on every occasion to mean wiles that would disgrace a fool:

As I entered your city I saw on a mechanical establishment the words "Welcome to the President." I know it was the emanation of laboring men who knew of my confidence in them, and if you, the people, are all right, as is evidenced here to-day that you are, you can bring the class of men who call themselves politicians to terms without much effort on your part. We have heard much about emancipation. Who has tried harder than I have to establish that great principle? But are you quite sure that a large portion of Pennsylvania is now having the tyrant's rod held over them? Who is it that is holding that rod over you?

UNANIMOUS.—On Monday, late in the afternoon, a petition was put in circulation among the Union citizens of Portland, requesting the members of the Legislature from this county to vote for the nominee of the Union caucus for the Senate. Every Union man to whom the paper was presented signed it and all expressed themselves strongly in favor of the only measure that can preserve the Union party—the election of the nominee. In less than two hours the list ran up to two hundred names, including the most prominent citizens of the place. After this positive instruction our members cannot doubt that it is the unanimous sentiment of Unionists here that members calling themselves Union men, should never abandon or refuse to support Gov Gibbs. We still hope that the joint ballot to-day will place all our members right on the record.

It is ordered that after the first of October the issue of rations by the Freedmen's Bureau shall be stopped, except to the sick in regularly organized hospitals, and to orphan asylums for refugees and freedmen. State officers who may be responsible for the poor are notified of this order, so that they may assume the charge of such indigent persons as may not be embraced in the above exceptions. This order is made on the recommendation of Gen Howard.

Johnson is sustained in Montana. The Copperheads and rebels of that Territory have carried the election by quite a large majority. Idaho and Montana are the only places in the North where "my policy" can get a footing. And it would get a booting out of there, were it not for the rebel votes from Missouri and other border States.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 24.

Tragedy at a Race Course

CHICAGO, Sept 23.—The Chicago driving park was Saturday the scene of great excitement, ending in a melancholy tragedy. The New York horse Gen Butler was matched against the Chicago horse Cooley for a purse of $5,000, mile heats, best three in five. Cooley won the first and second heats. Butler won the third heat and the judges gave him the fourth heat against the protest of the friends of Cooley and loud cries of the crowd. Cooley then went to the stable, but the judges ruled that the [illegible] Butler. It was after dark and the judges decided that the race should not be postponed to another day. Cooley was therefore brought out and after a half hour trial for a start the horses started under the wire and leaped out into the darkness. Butler came in ahead without a driver and Wm McKeany, the driver, was found near the mile post with his head fractured. Butler ran twice around the track in the darkness and went to his stall without injury even to his sulky. Wm Riley, the driver of Cooley, has been arrested. The police are actively ferreting out the cause of the tragedy.

News from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept 23.—The headquarters of the department of Tennessee are transferred from Nashville to Louisville, Ky.

Secretary Seward is much improved and has visited the White House.

Geo W Dent of California has been appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Arizona, and W. W. Wynkoop of Colorado agent for the Arrapahoes, Cheyennes and Apaches.

There is no truth in the statement that the payment of bounties provided for by last Congress has been stopped. On the contrary, Secretary of the Treasury has instructed the Paymaster General to commence paying at once. The Treasury Department is prepared to furnish on demand any amount that may be required.

The New York Coalition Dissolved.

CHICAGO, Sept 23.—Political interest now centers on the New York personal quarrel between Thurlow Weed and Raymond, and the Albany Democratic regency. Raymond charges that the Democratic leaders have shown bad faith toward the Philadelphia Platform and that they have repudiated it. The World and News tell Raymond that they don't want him or his platform. Raymond rejoins that it was a fixed matter among Democratic leaders three months ago and virtually confesses that he has been swindled. The mantle of Dean Richmond, he says, has fallen on John Morrissey. The Times says Hoffman was nominated by a trick and is not the Union candidate. The Herald replies that the Democrats gave 360,000 votes in New York two years ago and can do it again, and that they don't want bankrupt recruits, much less to make bankrupt recruits the leaders of their column.

John Morrissey, Ben Wood, G W Farmer, Fernando Wood and James Brooks are candidates for Congress in their several districts, and it is doubtful if they will allow Raymond to run at all.

The Times says: The Democrats instead of patriotically supporting the President as they promised to do upon the platform marked out have now made a bold push for power on their own account, and that they will not and ought not to succeed.

Gen. Grant's Position.

CHICAGO, Sept 23.—General Grant having been invited to attend the Pittsburg Soldiers Convention, Colonel Badeau, his aid de camp, replies: He instructs me to say that it is contrary to his habit and to his convictions of duty to attend political meetings of any character whatsoever, and that he sees with regret the action of any officer of the army taking a conspicuous part in the political discussions of the day.

The Political Weathercocks Veering Round

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Herald urges the Southern Governors to convene their legislatures and promptly accept the constitutional amendment because the northern elections will be overwhelmingly in its favor, and because it is just and right in itself. The Herald urges on President Johnson a full reconstruction of his Cabinet, saying the present members are either actively or passively committed to his views as to Southern policy, which does not represent the real majority of people. Consistency, it adds, demands of the President a cordial support of the ideas of Congress on the subject.

The Times this morning approves of each of the provisions of the constitutional amendment, and says there is not the slightest difference of opinion so far, as we are aware, in the Union party and very little anywhere else, as to the wisdom of ratifying the constitutional amendment proposed by Congress.

Wendell Phillips, declines any nomination for Congress and says "I feel that in accepting the office I should, paradoxical as it may sound, incur a responsibility to a far greater extent than I should gain power. I do not wish for a place of responsibility without all the power which should accompany it. It seems to me I can serve our cause better out of Congress than in it.

Sec'y Seward Recovered.—Political News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Sec'y Seward was at the State Department to-day, attending to his official duties.

The President has appointed Theo S Dwight, of Nebraska, Indian Superintendent for Nevada, and Harry Uman of California, Agent at South River Reservation.

Notwithstanding the President's official order declining to receive any more delegations of officeseeking missions but requesting them to file their claims with the proper department, the White House was filled to-day. Not more than a quarter of those in attendance succeeded in getting interviews. Thurlow Weed, however, was closeted with the President for some time, causing an excitement among New York politicians over offices in that State.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Gen Wm A Pile was yesterday nominated Radical candidate for Congress in the First District of Missouri, against Hogan, the present member. The Candidates in the Second District are Judge C. A Newcomb, Radical and Judge B V N Hay, Conservative.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, Sept 24.—Advices from Fort Smith, Arkansas, give the important information that the Seminole Indians have declared war against the whites, with the exception of one third of the tribe who are against the measure, and are splitting off from the main portion. They have caused some local difficulties which may cause civil war.

On Saturday last, at Richmond, the Directors of the National Express and Transportation Company, of which Joseph E. Johnson is President, made an assignment to Messrs Kelly & Blair of all its effects, for the benefit of creditors and others.

Interesting experiments of projectiles upon iron, as material for permanent fortifications, are in progress at Fortress Monroe.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—The track is laid within 82 miles of Omaha and building rapidly.

There is no clue to clear up the mystery of the tragedy at the Chicago Driving Park on Saturday, although large rewards are offered. It is doubtful whether the murderer will be arrested.

Gen Jeff C Davis, in command at Louisville, has sent a military commission to investigate the charges made against Dr. Ferris, Mail Agent, arrested on the mail boat by the civil authorities of Warsaw, Kentucky.

The Post's money article says the market is abundantly supplied with idle capital and large amounts are in some cases lending on Government collateral below the market rates. The bank statement shows an increase of loans of nearly two millions, and a decrease of deposits of less than half a million, and other changes though not important. Government securities are a shade lower under decreasing foreign demand. Gold rose toward close of the day, with increased demand from importers and foreign exchange and closed firmer. Flour 25@50c better and most active. Wheat 3@5c, and corn 1@2c lower. The reaction in corn was upon Chicago telegrams, showing less damage to the crops than was expected.

NEWS BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON, Sept 22—M.—Money is quiet and steady. Consols 89¼. Five-twenties 72¼.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 22.—Breadstuffs firmer.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The Emperor Napoleon is at Biarritz. It is stated the Empress Eugenie will shortly repair to Rome to condole with the holy father.

There is an apparently well grounded rumor that M Lavalette will retain the French foreign office.

DRESDEN, Sept 22.—The Gazette of to-day in an editorial, says the announcement of the conclusion of peace between Prussia and Saxony was premature. It admits, however, that good progress is being made in that direction.

FRANKFORT ON THE MAIN, Sept 22.—A memorial is being extensively signed in favor of the independence of Frankfort.

VIENNA, Sept 21.—Austria has sent a charge d'affaires to Berlin, who will represent the government until a minister is appointed.

VIENNA, Sept 22.—Archduke Albrecht has been made commander in-chief of the Austrian army.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 25.—Passengers who arrived from Cape St. Lucas on the steamer Sacramento report a rumor of counter revolution in Lower California in favor of the exiled Governor Antonio Pedrin, who is now in this city. Four hundred men started from San Jose for La Paz, to install Salvador Villarino as Provincial Governor, pending the arrival of Governor Pedrin, who is expected to return next steamer. Another rumor says the Imperial garrison at Mazatlan started out to attack Corona with a view of raising the siege of that place, and met a disastrous defeat. Corona followed the defeated Imperialists to Mazatlan, captured the town and held it, the French fleet being at Guaymas. The steamer Continental, not knowing that Corona occupied Mazatlan, ran into that port and the Liberal Commander seized her with 3,000 rifles and a large quantity of ammunition, on a charge of being engaged in making war on Mexico.

Attachment suits have been commenced against Stephen J Culverwell, manufacturer, amounting to over $9,000.

James Harlow has filed his petition in insolvency. His loss occurred principally through depreciation in property. Liabilities $4,038 47, with no assets.

In the case of M. E. Hughes vs J. E. Schaffer et al to recover $20,000 damages for falling through a trap door in the sidewalk, the jury rendered a verdict for plaintiff for $750.

The case of Theo G Sanborn, charged with obtaining money by false pretences, is on trial in the county court. It is charged that Sanborn, being notoriously insolvent, purchased a large amount of mining stock in the board of brokers, to pay for which he drew checks on the Bank of California, well knowing that he had no money in the bank to meet them. The prosecution charge that it was a preconcerted plan to swindle the sellers of the stock. The defense maintain that Sanborn acted in good faith and would have met his obligations had not the sheriff attached the money which was about being deposited in the bank for that purpose. A large number of brokers were out and injured by the transaction, and the testimony appears to be particularly interesting to the bulls and bears of the stock market, who are in attendance in large numbers. Sanborn was formerly one of the heaviest stock operators in this city. His transactions amounting at one time according to common report to $250,000 a month.

Jose Miguel suffered the extreme penalty of the law at Santa Cruz on Wednesday, the 19th inst., for the murder of Frank Williams at Watsonville.

The opposition steamer Moses Taylor left for San Juan del Sur this morning, with a large number of passengers.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SALEM, September 25—2 P. M.

The Senate this morning passed a resolution providing a select committee to investigate a report that Caldwell, elected from Josephine, had ceased to be an inhabitant of that county, with instructions to report to-morrow morning. This action looks to a vacation of his seat if the fact is so found.

The vote taken for U. S. Senator in the Senate to-day stands—Gibbs, 13, Kelly 4, Smith 4, Kelsay 1.

SALEM, Sept 25—2 P. M.

In the House for U. S. Senator Gibbs received 20 votes, Smith 11, Kelly 7, Nesmith 5, scattering 4. Of these Rosenheim voted for Corbett, Lockhart for Jesse Applegate, Stouffer for Simpson, and White for Logan. After first ballot, adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M.

Later.

SALEM, Sept 25—5 P. M.

The Senate had the Grant county contested case up this afternoon and after a long discussion referred the whole matter back to the Committee on Elections with instructions to report to-morrow morning.

STATE ITEMS

Our Dalles letter informs us that the Postmaster at that place has official notice from the Post Office Department of the establishment of a mail route from the Dalles via Canyon City to Boise City. Whether the mail is to be daily, tri-weekly, semi-weekly or weekly, the Dalles Postmaster is not advised.

We are informed by our Dalles correspondent that the number of horses and mules stolen by the Indians from Camp Watson recently was seventy nine. The latest news from that place was brought by Dr. Brooks.

The Sentinel gives an encouraging account of the improvements that are making in Jacksonville. Many new buildings are going up, and the town wears an enlivening appearance.

The Unionist says of the Senatorial election: "Stand by the nominee of the caucus and stand by the Union party. If this Legislature should fail to elect a true Union man, the men who defeat the will of the people will assume a responsibility that will crush them. Let there be harmony. Upon the Union party depends the salvation of our country. One vote in the United States Senate may decide the fate of the nation. Let not a question of such importance be trifled with."

We are informed that our statement in reference to the motives which caused the member of the Legislature who was approached with a bribe, to desist from the prosecution of the would be corruptionist was not correct, but that considerations far removed from any fear of personal harm induced him to pass the matter by. He had good and sufficient reasons for not pressing the case, which were quite different from those which we stated.

THE GREATEST ATTRACTION.—Persons passing the ST LOUIS STORE, No 111 Front street, may wonder why so many visit this popular place. It is because Messrs. KOHN & FISHEL are selling off their large stock of dry goods, consisting of the BEST READY MADE CLOTHING, DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES, &c., at prices fabulously low. Stop in and see for yourselves.

The Graefenberg Company's Uterine CATHOLICON does not contain one particle of calomel or mercury, and cases of Female Complaints which require other treatment than the Catholicon are extremely rare. It should be used in all cases of Deranged Monthly Periods, Weakness, Irregular Appetite, Nervousness, Headache, Disturbed Sleep, Acid Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion and Pains and Difficulties connected with the Uterine Organs.

THE UTERINE CATHOLICON is a most successful remedy for Gravel and all affections of the Kidneys and Bladder while in the troublesome symptoms attending Pregnancy the benefits of the Catholicon are most remarkable. It is a perfect restorer of functional and general health from budding womanhood to the turn of life, and those patients who have used the GRAEFENBERG COMPANY'S UTERINE CATHOLICON find difficulty in expressing their thankfulness for the beneficial effects of this wonderful medicine.

TARGET PRACTICE.—The Washington Guard left the city and proceeded to the Fulton House, from whence they were moved to the river bank where the target was set up. The company consisted of thirty men, who fired three shots each, firing by number, beginning at one; the distance was one hundred and fifty paces. The target bears the marks of sixty-two shots—twenty-four inside the ring and two on the "bull's eye." After the target practice the company was marched to the Fulton House, where a table was spread with all the delicacies of the season. Woodward's labor was fully appreciated by the boys. After dinner was over wine was brought upon the table, when toasts were offered and responded to. It was a very recherche affair. The Judges were S. B. Parrish, Maj. T. A. Davis, Chas. Gourley, and W. C. Ballard. The following is a list of prizes awarded:
1—One finely bound volume "Loves of the Poets," presented by Maj. Davis, won by W. G. Mackay.
2—Photographic view of Cape Disappointment, by Jno. Dougherty, won by F. F. Myers.
3—One prpmas, by Barman Bros., won by C.S. Savarian.
4—Silver cup, by Goldsmith Bros., won by D. Cavanagh.
5—Gold ring, by W. C. Ballard, won by C. Zigler.
6—Gold pencil, by Stewart & Gourley, won by J. W. Baldwin.
7—Meerschaum pipe, by Schonfeld & Liebenbaum, won by P. J. Johnston.
8—Photographic album, by S. B. Parish, won by E. J. Jeffrey.
9—Photographic album, by S. J. McCormick, won by J. Hinton.
10—Traveler's Companion, by S. L. Stone, won by H. Cooke, Jr.
11—Silk hat, by Menanlorffer & Co., won by D. Crasy.
12—Pocket knife, by E. J. Northrup & Co., won by H. E. McCord.
13—Engraving of U. S. Grant, by W. H. D. Joyce, won by E. C. Coffin.
14—One doz. neckties, by Kohn & Fischel, won by A. Jerrod.
15—Fruit cake, by Oplitz & Co., won Jas. Lotan.
16—One pr gauntlets, by Cohen, Lyon & Kaufman, won by Jas. Bothwell.
17—One case wine, by H. Saxer, won by Company.
18—Leather medal, by Jas. Welch, won by A. M. Mackey.

RICH LODES.—Mr. Wm. Quigley early last spring discovered upon the Pen d'Oreille five lodes of silver bearing quartz. Samples were sent to the Missoula Mills where they were pronounced to be of excellent quality. A few weeks since Mr. Quigley, accompanied by Mr. W. M. Vineyard and L. P. Davidson, visited the Pen d'Oreille the second time for the purpose of further investigation. They were well rewarded by the discovery of two more lodes, one of which proves to be very rich. The test of some of the samples show a value of $2,000 per ton. Mr. Chapman of this city has tested some of the rock and has an assay of over $500 per ton. They have not been able to reach sufficient depth in the lode for these assays to give a fair valuation, or even show fair samples of the rock. Mr. Hartley of Lewiston in an assay of rock that was taken from the same locality, finds $1,200 to the ton. The ledges are situated about eighty miles from the Cabinet Rapids, near a locality called the Big Slide. One lode called the Pen d'Oreille is rich in gold, and when its rock is pounded up and washed, it shows highly satisfactory results. This ledge is rich in silver, and as far as [illegible] shows a width of ten feet. All of the ledges discovered are wide, some of them twenty feet. There is now being built at Thompson's Falls a new steamer, which will run near these ledges, as they are situated upon or near the line of steamboat travel. They are well supplied with timber and in the immediate vicinity are good water privileges. The parties interested intend to [illegible] work upon the lodges immediately. They will spend the winter at the lodes and thoroughly test their value. They also intend to put one or two arastras at work on the Pen d'Oreille ledge immediately. The St. Louis and Vermillion lodes are also in the same locality, but are being extensively worked. The names of the lodes discovered by Mr. Quigley and recorded, are the Pen d'Oreille, Missoula, Ophir, Capt. Higgins, Silver Bend, and [illegible].

POLICE COURT.—Yesterday S. B. Vance and Thomas Harris, [illegible] with disorderly conduct. They each paid a fine of $5 and costs. J. H. Lappens and Charles Landon, charged with sitting up and keeping a gambling device on his premises. Cause will be heard in the [illegible] Mrs. Andrews, charged with disorderly conduct and the use of abusive language upon the street, was [illegible] Mike Euert and H. Odas, charged with [illegible] in tearing down and destroying a fence. The parties were discharged......Upon the docket appear [illegible], charged with larceny, and Indian Jim, [illegible] by Indian Mary, for assault and battery.

STATE FAIR.—We see that the thirteenth annual State Fair of the State of California closed on the 17th inst. It was well attended and with its gayety and bustle, its [illegible] and pleasant scenes, an impression is made that will bestow a lasting and permanent benefit. The fine display of useful and ornamental articles at their [illegible] beautiful operas, spirited racing at their park, [illegible] to make the meeting a very joyous one. The [illegible] the last day were $1,575 25. The total receipts [illegible] week were $13,393 50, which is about $500 [illegible] receipts of last year.

[illegible]—Those who purchased marble ornaments at the large sale in this city sometime ago, [illegible] to learn the mode of [illegible] and [illegible] To clean objects in statuary, carving in [illegible] Mix two ounces of carbonate of soda with [illegible] of cold water, and wash the object to be cleansed [illegible] stiff and clean paint brush. When the dirt is [illegible] removed, rinse it off in pure water, nothing [illegible] take care not to use any soap.

[illegible]—We see numbers of immigrants passing through our city en route for that "land of promise," the [illegible] valley. We are glad to see them coming, [illegible] many more will come, singing, "We are coming, Father Abraham, five hundred thousand strong."

THE BALL.—The ball at Oro Fino Hall, given by the [illegible] Guards last evening, we chronicle as a success and as the most attractive thing of the season. About sixty couples were present, and "all went merry as a marriage bell."

[illegible].—We see that the estimated [illegible] of the Atlantic Cable Company will be [illegible] and a half millions of dollars. It would seem from this that the great Atlantic cable is not only a success but a paying institution.

The sale of the Potosi of Idaho stock went off this [illegible] at 10 o'clock as advertised. We learn that the stock was entirely purchased by members of the company—no outside parties bidding.

[illegible]—The Pioneer sailed last evening at 5 o'clock, taking a [illegible] of [illegible]. She takes 200 boxes of fruit, 4,000 qr. sks. flour and 100 sks. wheat.

[illegible].—We note the articles by the steamer Senator last [illegible]: 105 boxes fruit, 77 cases lard, 200 sacks [illegible], 1[illegible] 19 pkgs mdse and 400 sks flour.

[illegible] BALL CLUB.—A special meeting of the Club will be held this evening for the purpose of electing the first nine. See notice in another column.

[illegible].—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt was detained at her wharf until 7 o'clock this morning in consequence of thick fog.

AUCTION TO-DAY.—Mr. Richardson advertises a splendid pair of bay mares for sale, in addition to the usual sale of [illegible] furniture, etc.

[illegible] referred to the first page for proceedings of the [illegible].

One of the [illegible] and by far the most beautiful accessory [illegible] of the modern sewing machine is that of [illegible] elaborate and elegant embroidery. [illegible] hereafter be considered fit for family use [illegible] as well as sews; and no machine but the Grover & Baker pretends to attain to this perfection. Wm. Carrier, agent for Portland.

BARBERS AND TAILORS.—The N. Y. World, Chicago Times, and other Copperhead papers very indignantly repudiate the idea that there was any great harm done in murdering Dr. Dostie at New Orleans, because, they say, and they back their [illegible] by the affidavits of old inhabitants, he was "nothing but a barber" in early life. We do not know whether Dr. Dostie was a barber at any period of his life or not, but if the degree of guilt attaching to his wanton murder, depends upon that fact, it becomes interesting and important to know where the Copperhead party draws the line between those whose early pursuits render them of no account, and those to kill whom it would be worthy of judicial inquiry. In this case of Dostie they decide that a tonsorial artist is of no account, and the decision must be based upon some latent disgrace attaching to the razor and the brush, because the Democratic party make no such objection to the knights of the shears and thimble. The profession of a barber, to most men, is quite as honorable as that of a mender of old clothes. The one renovates the beard, the other renovates the garments; the one uses soap, brush, razor and shears, while the other employs the thimble, thread, needle and shears. They are both artists in their way, and to the great multitude there is no apparent social distinction expressed by the sign "A. Johnson, Tailor," which is not equally expressed by "D. Dostie, Barber." We do not believe the barbers have any perquisites peculiar to their vocation. They shave and shampoo, and take nothing but their fee, while the ancient and honorable order of tailors have their prescriptive right to cabbage. In the [illegible] of any other explanation, we must therefore assume that the social distinction which separates tailors from barbers is purely vegetable, and that it consists in the fact that one has an indefeasible right to cabbage, the other has not. —Chicago Tribune.

P—— Base Ball Club.—There will be a special meeting of the Club this evening at 7 o'clock at the office of G. V. Smith, Esq. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance will come before the meeting.

By order of the President.

FROM IDAHO.

We clip the following from the Avalanche of the 15th instant:

POORMAN.

We visited and made notes on this mine last week. Our report seemed almost incredible, but since that time the pure ore has been found in larger quantities than ever before, and larger than we reported. It is so rich that the truth concerning it sounds more like fable than reality. Pure sheets of silver as large and much thicker than common-sized window glass have been recently taken out of the granite casings. A recent 12 hours' run of ten stamps gave 1200 ounces of clean amalgam, and it must be remembered that all very rich ore is boxed for shipment in its natural state. We will make a reasonable effort to get actual results for publication. Whether we succeed or not, the real wealth of this mine has not been overstated.

RICHMAN.

Development is progressing on this ledge. A shaft twenty-eight feet in depth discloses a vein of four feet of quartz with fine gold visible in some, and a general silver stain throughout. A tunnel penetrates the mountain to a distance of about forty feet, but as yet does not show a clearly defined ledge; however, the tunnel is run into what appears to be a slide, and it is only expected to trace the vein by the tunnel to the real mountain, where the broken parts of the ledge will unquestionably unite and become a solid vein. The rock prospects well in gold and silver.

REUTER & JOHNSON.

The discoverers are sinking on this ledge with the best encouragement. They have reached a depth of forty feet and find the ledge gradually increased from four inches at the surface to two feet of good quartz at the bottom. We have examined the original shaft and know this to be true. It runs almost straight down and increases in size with an evenness seldom witnessed. Parties at work on the ledge a thousand feet north of the discovery, find the same indications, regularity and encouragement in their shaft.

SUICIDE.

Wm. Slagle, a carpenter, committed suicide by shooting himself through the brain, on Tuesday forenoon, in a cabin near the N. Y. & O. Mill, opposite Ruby, while in a state of mental derangement, brought on by the too free use of alcoholic liquors. Slagle was a quiet, inoffensive man, of more than ordinary intelligence, and until within a few weeks past was considered sober and industrious. He came from Knight's Landing, Yolo county, California, where he has lived for several years.

INDIAN OUTRAGE.

Mr. William J. Hill, of the Owyhee Ferry, on the fifth, lost a horse, which he supposed had been taken by some travelers, on their way to Virginia City, Nevada, or California. He took a horse the next day and followed and overtook them at Summit springs, 45 miles from the ferry, and not finding his horse, returned. After leaving Dry Creek, about 20 miles from the ferry, his horse nearly gave out, so that he was compelled to ride very slow. When within three miles of the ferry, or home, and near the river, a number of Indians rose from behind a bank from among the tall rye grass and willows and fired upon him, wounding him through the right shoulder. The ball passed entirely through. He sprang from his horse and raised his Henry's rifle, when a cloud of arrows were fired at him, one wounding him in the left shoulder. He then kept his horse between himself and the Indians and returned their shots. He is confident that he killed the Indian who hit him with the ball, as he jumped partially up the bank and fell back. The horse was wounded with arrows many times. Mr. Hill pulled one out of him and thinks that if he had not been so completely worn out he might have got away with him; but after firing several shots at them, and knowing he was badly wounded, he ran about a mile and a half, leaving his horse, saddle, trappings &c., to the enemy. The ball passed through the right shoulder below the joint, ranging a little back, and must have passed near the bone. It is a very painful wound, but at present does not assume a very dangerous appearance. Mr. Hill killed two Indians, as the bodies have been found. Hill deserves great credit for his successful victory in this instance, and we hope he may live to kill a thousand and enjoy the fruits of his labors in pursuing his labor unmolested.

ADVANTAGES OF SOZODONT is Sozodont, and if you use it daily, the white gleam of the pearls between the parted rubies will prove its excellence as a Dentifrice, and the sweetness of the breath will attest its purifying properties.

THE WONDERS OF PHOTOGRAPHY.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, at their GALLERY, 89 First street, have shown us some of the most exquisite specimens of the Photographic Art ever executed here. Among the various styles seen at this establishment we might mention those magnificent and delicate toned SUN PEARLS; those superb PATENT ENAMELED PICTURES; those artistic ALBUM and VISITING CARDS, as well as PEARL AMBROTYPES, MELAINOTYPES, etc. All who value fine work will visit this Gallery without delay.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be in the possession of everybody in the mining regions. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage. It is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, and the pervading fevers consequent upon exposure, the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective. No man should enter upon the exposed life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation, fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere. sep20 HODGE & CALEF, 97 Front St.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how!" you ask;
We answer, "'tis an easy task,
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate, from day to day.
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent:
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be forearmed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households lone, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Sold by respectable druggists in all parts of the world.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

STOP THAT COUGHING

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

NEWELL'S

Pulmonary Syrup

is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by the surprising curative powers of

NEWELL'S

Pulmonary Syrup

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it.

NEWELL'S

Pulmonary Syrup

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

Governor Brownlow's Address to the Loyalists of Tennessee

From Knoxville Governor Brownlow has issued to the Union men of Tennessee an address which like whatever he writes is full of patriotism and pith. He is too feeble to travel about the State and therefore thus addresses the people

THE EXTRA SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

He commences with a history of the recent extra session of the Tennessee Legislature which was called to consider the amendment to the Constitution proposed by Congress and recapitulates the incidents of that extraordinary struggle between himself and the loyal members of that body on the one hand and the President at the head of the rebels and Copperheads on the other—a struggle the history of which is familiar to the country, and which ended finally in the triumph of the Union men and the ratification of the amendment

He then tells how the rebels resorted to the judiciary to carry out their schemes when they found the Legislature would yield to no pressure how they induced Judge Frazer "a weak man and a political partisan," to violate the privileges of the lower House, how a rebel Captain acting as Sheriff, and leading twenty-five discharged rebel soldiers broke into the Capitol and arrested the House Sergeant-at-Arms how the Judge fined this officer, and the more eagerly because he was a brave soldier in the Union army, and how Martin, one of the members of the House whom it had taken into custody for contempt and who was a guerilla chief during the war was released by a rebel mob breaking down the door and window of the room in which he was confined

"This" says the Governor "is a part and parcel of Johnson's policy to restore the rebels to power. It means to crush out the Union men of the South and restore the Democratic traitors of the South to power and place. It is intended by him and his advisers to make treason respectable and traitors honorable, while loyalty is to become disreputable, and loyal men are disgraced and driven from the South. To accomplish all this, and even more, there is on foot a regular conspiracy, and the chief conspirator is Andrew Johnson, as I honestly believe"

WHY HE BELIEVES JOHNSON A TRAITOR.

The Governor then sums up the victory which was achieved by the loyal Legislature, and says he believes Johnson a traitor, and his treason rank and damnable. And here are his reasons for believing so:

"Because he is turning loyal men out of office by thousands to make room for rebels and traitors. Because he is appointing Tennessee legislative bolters to office as a reward for their revolutionary and villainous conduct. Because he betrayed the Breckinridge Democracy after working with and for them up to the day on which Lincoln was first elected. Because he betrayed the loyal North after they had elected him to the office of Vice-President. Because he has betrayed the down trodden and unoffending negro, trying again to sell him into bondage after promising to be his Moses. Because he has betrayed the Fenians to the British Government after selling them guns and ammunition, and impressing their minds with the belief that he was their friend. And last but not least because he has never been true to any one but Andrew Johnson"

AN APOLOGY.

Brownlow then apologizes for putting Johnson in nomination for the Vice Presidency at Baltimore, especially that he voted in accordance with the wishes of the Tennessee delegation and says

"Better would it have been for the cause of republican liberty if the Tennessee delegation, including the writer, had all been in a rebel prison South, rather than in the Baltimore Convention, helping to place Johnson in a position where he when his friends should murder the patriot Lincoln, should become President of these United States"

He declared it the settled determination of Northern and Southern traitors to involve the country in another war, and they will make an attempt to force the rebels into Congress the occasion for this, and warns the South of the awful consequences that will follow. He then presents the following

JOHNSON IN 1865 VERSUS JOHNSON IN 1866

"The loyal men of Tennessee will allow me to contrast Andrew Johnson of 1865 with Andrew Johnson of 1864. His official dispatches shall speak for him

WASHINGTON (D C) July 16, 1865—3 50 P M

To Governor W G Brownlow. I hope, as I have no doubt you will see that the laws passed by the last Legislature are faithfully executed, and that all illegal voters in the approaching election be kept from the polls, and that the election of members of Congress be conducted fairly. Whenever it becomes necessary for the execution of the law and the protection of the ballot box, you will call upon General Thomas for sufficient military force to sustain the civil authority of the State. I have just read your address, which I most heartily endorse

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President United States of America

"My 'address,' the people of Tennessee will recollect, avowed the very principles upon which I have since acted, and upon which the President is now making war. Exactly one year from the day when he telegraphed the foregoing he sent the following to General Thomas, refusing military aid to compel an attendance of refractory members, and of two armed mobs resisting the House and its legally constituted officers

WASHINGTON, July 16, 1866

General Grant will instruct General Thomas that the facts stated in his telegram do not warrant the interference of the military authority. The administration of the laws and the preservation of peace in Nashville belong properly to the State authorities, and the duty of the United States forces is not to interfere in any way in the controversy between the political authorities of the State, and General Thomas will strictly abstain from any interference between them

ANDREW JOHNSON

"At the same time I was refused the necessary military aid at Nashville to protect the Legislature and its legal officers from mob violence, the President, soon thereafter, ordered the Government authorities at New Orleans to use the military to aid an infuriated rebel mob to break up a Union Convention of peaceable and loyal men which has resulted in the cruel murder and wounding of hundreds of loyal white and colored men. This feast was intended for Nashville, and was only prevented by the prompt action of a talented fearless and patriotic Congress admitting Tennessee to her original position in the Federal Union"

DANGERS AND HOW TO MEET THEM

He next drew a picture of the great danger to which the loyal men of Tennessee are still exposed, but enumerates, too, their sources of encouragement and says

"Having no hope of protection from the President, in the event of an attack from a rebel mob, I shall look with confidence to the Northwestern States to come to our rescue as soon as attacked by the minions of Jeff Davis and Andrew Johnson. And if further developments seem to justify it, I will call out the loyal militia of the State and call upon the Legislature to arm and equip them. We must and will meet these traitors and sustain the Governments, State and national, or fall with our faces to the foe!"

THE INTELLIGENCER AND THE COMING LOCAL CONVENTION

Referring to the great 3d of September loyal Southern Convention, he says

"The Washington Intelligencer, President Johnson's organ says the Convention of Southern Unionists is called to assemble in Philadelphia because there is 'no place in any Southern State where such a Convention would be tolerated'

"This is the old familiar style. Really the world has not moved much. In 1856 Fremont speakers were not 'tolerated' in certain States. In 1858 these States would not tolerate anti Lecompton speakers. In 1860 they would not tolerate the election of Abraham Lincoln. The consequence was that in 1863 these people had to tolerate a mass Convention called by Grant at Vicksburg, in 1864 similar meetings of Sherman's men in Atlanta and Savannah and in 1865 a grand Convention in the neighborhood of Appomattox. Are these same States anxious to renew the experiment? If so there are a million veteran soldiers who are ready to 'fight it out on that line' until lawful assemblages of Union men are tolerated on every acre of ground belonging to the United States—New Orleans not excepted"

CONGRESS AND ITS ENEMIES

And thus he enumerates the friends and enemies of the present Congress

"Who are most bitterly opposed to the present radical Congress? Jeff Davis is dead out against it. Robert E. Lee Beauregard Bragg, Kirby Smith and all the crippled Generals, Colonels and Captains of the late rebel army are against it. Alexander H. Stephens and all ex rebel Congressmen and rebel legislators are against it. Andrew Johnson and all his rebel Democratic supporters are against it. The men in the South who conscripted Union men, who burned down Union dwellings, robbed Union families of all they had and made war, hiding us along our borders are against it. The sneaking, hissing Northern Copperhead who [illegible] after Southern rebels for the sake of social position or pecuniary reward is against it. The Northern and Southern Democrats who are intent upon the overthrow of the Government and the restoration of slavery are against it. Every guerrilla chief highway robber, and whisky bloat of the rebel army is against it. Every traitor who edited a rebel paper during the war and at its breaking out is against it

"Who are in favor of a radical Congress and its bold and patriotic course? Every radical lover of his country North or South is in favor of it. Every unconditional Union man who stands by his country in opposition to another war is in favor of it. Every man who prefers the [illegible] of the negro to that of the Union is in favor of it. Every mother that has lost a son, every wife that has given her husband every one that visits the sacred graves that lie all over the land and on every line of march and every one who in tears and sorrow think of their losses are with our brave and patriotic Congress and will not be turned against that body, as it is now the only hope of the country. Every clergyman and every good man in the churches who believes that we have had strife enough and wishes no more demoralization stands by Congress and prays for preservation. Every man in and out of the church who thinks more of law and order and our Government than he does of office and spoils is for Congress. Every man not in the Johnson rebel conspiracy to bring on another rebellion is for Congress, and will stand by that body to the last

"INGRATITUDE' AND 'DIGNITY'

He then meets and refutes the charge of 'ingratitude' that has been brought against him by the friends of Johnson speaks of the rebel threat that Johnson would set aside the loyal Government of Tennessee and put one of his own satraps over us and dares him to do so without subjecting himself to impeachment and expulsion from office

In reference to the want of dignity charged against him for his 'dead dog' telegram to the Clerk of the Senate, he makes an amusing and most striking contrast between his own dignity and that of Andy Johnson

A WARNING WORTHY OF HEED

With regard to the intentions of rebels if they obtained power he writes this warning

"I feel called upon to warn the honest, loyal masses against a matured scheme of the Johnson Copperhead leaders to have the Government pay them for all the negroes they lost by the war. Not more than one in ten of the loyal men South ever owned any slaves or desired to own them, and it would be downright robbery to tax nine laboring men to pay for the slaves of one gentleman. A direct tax is the only mode by which the Government can pay for the emancipated slaves, and it is better that one loyal slave owner suffer than that nine honest laborers, equally loyal, suffer to make his losses good

"Most of the men now in the Copperhead ranks in the South are men who expect, when the Southern States are represented in Congress, that they will be compensated for their negroes. Not a few of them think that they will get slavery restored. Our people can afford to pay a direct tax to liquidate the war debt through a period of several years, but tax them to pay for four millions of slaves owned by a small number of nabobs and original secessionists, and they will not get through with tax paying in a life time"

"To the Union masses, the honest working voters, I say in all candor, watch the men who advocate this paying for their lost negroes. If the Government will tax the slave owners alone to pay for the negroes, I go for it, but I shall never consent to tax men to pay for negroes, who never owned any and never desired to own any. Slaveholders got up the big dance in 1861—they continued the frolic for four years—and they are the very men to pay the fiddlers"

THE LEGISLATURE AND PRETENDED LOYALISTS

A brief review of the history of the present Legislature of Tennessee, which has indeed made a glorious record, follows

Then the Governor warns against those Tennesseans rebels during the war, members of rebel vigilance and military committees, denouncers of Lincoln and supporters of McClellan who pretend to be special loyalty men and yet sustain the President in all his usurpations

"The massacre of Fort Pillow, the brutality of Andersonville, the base assassination of Lincoln, the murderous fury of the Memphis mob, the wholesale hanging and shooting down of East Tennessee Unionists—all at length paralleled by the inexcusable slaughter in New Orleans—have no terrors for these Tennessee admirers of Johnson, though he is becoming startled at the atrocity of his own deeds and the legitimate fruits of his insane policy"

ONLY TWO PARTIES

The patriotic, able and important document closes as follows

"In this address I have used great plainness of speech, and for this reason, first that I desired and intended to be understood, and next because this is no time for putting forth an uncertain sound. I have desired to act in harmony with the President—so has the great Union party of this country, the Legislature of the State, and Congress, as I took occasion to write him about the beginning of the year. I hope he may publish this short letter. I have resolved that the President should not call a Grayback Convention at Philadelphia—a Convention to be composed of office holding Republicans, of delegates from the party that opposed the war, and of delegates from the rebel Congress and the rebel armies, and out of these materials organize a Johnson Democratic rebel party, and turn me over to it to be dedicated to and controlled by the men who fought four years to destroy the country. This is the pass to which we have come, at last, and those who are willing that a faithless President shall transfer them to his new party organization can go, and may joy go with them. Divide and subdivide as we may, there can be but two parties in this country—a disloyal and a loyal party. Choose ye between these parties, whose only issue is whether this State and nation are to be governed by loyal or disloyal men,

"It is proper for me to state that my term of service will expire in October, 1867, and that I shall not be a candidate for re-election to the office I now hold, or to any other office within the gift of the people. While I am in office I shall endeavor to do my whole duty, as I have done without regard to consequences. In retirement I will continue to vote and act only with the party that is radical in its loyalty to the Union and radical in its opposition to all the schemes and devices of rebels and rebel sympathisers

"W G BROWNLOW,
"Governor of Tennessee

"Knoxville, August 17, 1866"

A PORTRAIT OF BEECHER.—The Round Table, in a notice of Beecher's new book, accompanies a disparaging criticism with a very pointed rebuke of one of Henry Ward's weaknesses, as follows

He has been the idol of a large number of uneducated or imperfectly educated persons who have been forever flattering his vanity and tempting him to make himself ridiculous. When he went to England to encounter in place of adulation a certain cool dislike not unmixed with contempt, he showed to much better advantage than he does in the pages of books like Royal Truths. The intrinsic power of the man came out then and did him good service. He was straightforward, bold and manly. He forgot or put aside his tin pot rubbish; faced difficulties and opprobrium, and bore himself in a manner which won the respect of those even who most opposed him. But he cannot continue in that vein. His vanity invariably asserts itself and with more turgid ostentation for the interval of lucid common sense whereby it has been restrained. He will do something every now and then to make us believe him greatly improved, to make us begin to feel as Americans like being proud of him, but in a trice he returns to his old character, and flourishes away once again as the Barnum of the pulpit the Bennett of sensational morality. With all his experience—and he has had much—with all his perception, and it must teach him in his clearer moments how extremely hollow and worthless such praise is—Beecher cannot resist the fascinating intoxication begotten of ignorant applause. To be 'popular' he deliberately sacrifices the good opinion of the only class in the community whose suffrage is such a relation is of any value

A WILD GIRL.—A very curious event lately occurred in Hungary during a bear hunt. A very savage she bear had just been wounded, when all at once a girl about twelve years of age rushed out of the bushes threw herself upon the body of the expiring beast giving utterance to the most lamentable cries. After a good deal of difficulty this young savage was captured, by nets and cords. It has been discovered that a peasant woman some 12 years ago, lost a child—a little girl—in the confines of the forest and had never been able to obtain any more tidings of her. A certain Countess Odeski has taken the girl under her care and is obliged to feed her on roots, honey and raw meat, the usual food of bears

SOMETHING NEW!

THE NEW LIGHT!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT IS A UNIVERSAL necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense trouble and annoyance the chimney is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided. It is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps. It is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney Lamp, for one third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper light ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrene corner of Morrison and First streets.
